SOCIETY

Wedding Vows Are Said At Morning Ceremony

Mrs. Anna Vonderahe of Torrance and Mr. Bernard Hines of Kokomo, Indiana, were united in marriage in a lovely early morning ceremony at the Catholic church last Saturday, November 30 at 7:30 a. m. Reverend Father Daniel Hurley officiated at the ceremony.

Baskets of roses, shading from pink to red, were used profusely in the church decorations, while the statues were banked with pink and white sweet peas. In the foreground of the sanctuary, a huge basket of white chrysanthemums was placed.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Mary Scallen rendered a short organ recital, and at the close played the wedding march. The bride was gowned in a lovely frock of rose blush pussy willow crepe, made with the uneven hemline falling to the ankles on each side.

Her costume was completed by accessories of a matching shade, and a red fox fur. She wore a bridal corsage of butterfly roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Paul Vonderahe, her attendant, wore royal blue crepe made with a fitted bodice and long hemline, and a hat of the same shade. Her corsage was of tiny Cecil Bruner roses, delphinium and lily of the valley.

Charles Vonderahe attended the groom as best man. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hines left for their new home in San Diego.

Mrs. Hines enjoys a large circle of friends in Torrance, where she has been the owner-manager of the Hotel Torrance for the past eight years.

Hermosa furnished the music for dancing throughout the evening. Mrs. Joe Anderson assisted the hostess in receiving the guests, who included Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McManus, Mr. and Mrs. D. McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bray, Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Staphofeldt, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. the utmost. Free parking space is provided by the ballroom for all those who attend.

The proceeds from these monthly dances will be devoted to the welfare work of the Southern California chapter and also for the maintenance of the employment bureau which places hundreds of members each year. It is also planned, the purpose of these monthly dances to be informal get-together affairs, so that members of the different councils will become better acquainted. It is hoped that these dances will become the outstanding social events of the year and provide a place for the young people as well as the old folks to enjoy themselves.
